

THE DAILY APPEAL.

WEDNESDAY...DECEMBER 29, 1858

NOTICE TO ADVERTISERS.—On Saturday next our paper will come out in a new dress. Such is our advertising friends as desire a change in their advertisements, will please make it known during the week, as we desire to put all our advertisements in new type.

TEN CHAIR-GANG.—The useful and laborious institution at present consists of thirty-three men.

RESCUE OF COURT.—This Court was not very busy yesterday; only two cases were up and they were of little interest to the public.

DR. J. F. MILLER.—has returned to the city and may be found at Darrow's boarding house, on the corner of Navy Yard. Persons would wait with care, and business, can apply there.

WE ARE IMBLED TO MR. SWAIN, newspaper agent on the Memphis and Charleston Railroad, for $100 and Cincinnati papers for the 27th instant yesterday morning, at 10 o'clock, in this city.

MEMPHIS COULD NOT BE MORE APPROPRIATE.—to the advertising men. McCaus & Co., wholesale and retail hardware merchants in Union Block. They are reliable, obliging and true, and we take pleasure in recommending them to our friends in this line.

REACH, RUELL AND MICHAEL.—Two of the men who were incarcerated in jail on charge of being concerned in the riotous proceedings at a house of ill-fame on Saturday night, had been liberated yesterday on giving bail.

NOTIFICATION PARTY.—The annual meeting of the First Baptist Church of this city will assemble on Friday evening, December 31, at the residence of Rev. T. J. Deane, or near the rear Market street. The congregation and friends of the party are respectfully invited to attend.

LAWYER PAPER.—We are indebted to our friend Dugan, telegraphic operator, at the Grand Junction, for St. Louis papers of the 27th inst., and also for Cincinnati papers of the same date, received via Cairo, Columbus and Grand Junction. These papers were received in this office yesterday, about noon.

STEALING.—T. ALFRED was discovered yesterday in the store-room of the Advertiser offices, which he had entered with felonious purpose. He had six reams of paper in his possession which he had stolen, and was about making off with it. He was arrested, and put in jail for examination.

THE BRIDGE.—The eight of us from the bridge is at this time a grand one, the stream tides along at tremendous speed, carrying a considerable amount of heavy drift on its bosom; the Mississippi is bank full, and not more than five feet below the highest water of the late great flood. We may expect to hear of serious floods.

WE ARE INDEBTED TO COL. JAMES CLEMANS, manager of the Telegraph offices for this letter. Look up papers in the Cairo, Columbus and Jackson, Tenn. Rivers tickets, the route may be obtained at the office of the Mississippi Central and Tennessee Railroad at Grand Junction. It is the greatest Northwestern route.

CONNECTION.—In giving the names of the parties who were held to bail on Tuesday, on the charge of riot, we copied the list as we found it, but it is desirable to explain that the second name on the list, and the name of the police officer of that name, is not in the list of names of those held, and was about making off with it. He was arrested, and put in jail for examination.

Rivers tickets, the route may be obtained at the office of the Mississippi Central and Tennessee Railroad at Grand Junction. It is the greatest Northwestern route.

THE STREET LAMPS.—Now the river is high and water is plenty, we think it is not appropriate to have the gas company pay for lighting the gas company who is paid by the city to keep the street lamps clean, but the performance of his duties is greatly impaired. We pay enough for gas, and we get poor gas for our part, so let us have the cost increased by neglect in clearing the street lamp.

UNIVERSITY PLACE.—Our friend Spurz, at his store, on Madison street, nearly opposite our office, is dispensing good wholesome provost to the public; he does immediately with the farmer, and retains what he obtains, pure and simple, and other articles, while recognizing the superiority and purity of their quality. Read his advertisements, which we publish this evening.

EGGLES.—Our Painters.—The sale of paintings by G. Loxen & Co. on yesterday was not very well attended, owing to the inclemency of the weather, and the laconicity of the notice. In order to give the lovers of fine arts another opportunity to purchase fine pictures, we have called a second sale, to be held on Saturday evening, at 6 o'clock p.m. All who have seen these pictures speak in the highest praise of them, and advertise.

THE PLACE FOR GOOD TRAITS.—For general good traits for family use, the place to purchase at is Cawley & Shewey's store, on Madison st., opposite No. 2 Gayo's Savers Institution. We have tried articles in our own house, and our "better-half" pronounces them "very good." They have a wide selection, and having a connection with one of the largest houses in St. Louis, they can sell cheap as well as good groceries. Try them.

MR. TAYLOR'S.—They presented a grand ball at this house on Friday evening, which the famous Wm. S. Taylor, the popular Harry Macarthy, and the whole strength of the company will be engaged. Three popular and highly entertaining pieces will be the play—The W'st Romeo, Faddy May's Boy, (a breath of a boy, be tor, be tor), and Good for Nothing. A variety of songs and sketches will be given, and a general dance will be held.

THE EXCAVATOR.—The Water river packet boat, the Excavator, will be the leader of the company having the best accommodations, the officers are of the right kind, the housekeeper of Capt. James Dugger, and the attentive kindness of the genuine crew. RIVER NEWS.

The River continued rising yesterday at the rate of about one inch in twenty-four hours; it is now within one foot of the highest point attained in the great flood of the present year. The New Orleans, before St. Louis, has risen to a height of 10 feet above the bed of the river, having about five feet below the highest water of the late great flood. We may expect to hear of serious floods.
